I. READING COMPREHENSION (共 15 分，每題 3 分)

DIRECTIONS: Read each sentence and circle T if the statement is true or F if it is false.

A.

In 2004, Americans spent more money than ever before on dressing their pets. It is now possible to buy an outfit for your pet for almost any occasion. Pet boutiques are opening around the country. Some shops cater to the wealthiest pet owners and offer designer clothing and jewelry. In these stores you can buy diamond collars, lizard leashes, and hand knit sweaters. If you are unable to afford such luxuries, you can shop at one of the many stores that offer cheaper items for pets.

- (1) Americans spent less money on pet clothes in 2004 than they did in 2000. T / F
- (2) If you want to buy a diamond collar for your pet, it is possible to find one. T / F
- (3) A pet owner who is not wealthy will not be able to find clothing for her pet. T / F

B.

Las Vegas is not only popular with gamblers. Many people take their families to Las Vegas to enjoy the many other kinds of entertainment available there. The food and hotels are not as cheap as they once were, but there still are many inexpensive places to stay and eat. There are activities for the whole family. If you like climbing, at Gameworks there is a huge rock wall to scale. You can observe sharks and jellyfish at Mandalay Bay, or enjoy the theme park at Circus Circus. If you love lions, you can visit the MGM Lion Habitat. At the Lion Habitat, you can take pictures of baby lions and watch them play. You will find something to satisfy everyone in the family in Las Vegas.

- (4) Las Vegas is only popular with adults who enjoy gambling. T / F
- (5) There is a large rock wall you can climb at Gameworks. T / F
